PINX STORY

Pinky Cooper, the creative force behind Pinx Catering, discovered the transformative power of a smile in the corporate world. With a passion for crafting exceptional culinary experiences, Pinky leads Pinx Catering to create lasting impressions.

Pinx Catering began its journey at the "Vote for Your Vendor" contest in 2011, where Pinky's innovative dishes gained recognition. Since then, Pinky has dedicated herself to delivering warmth, flavor, and style in corporate settings with meticulous attention to detail.

Today, after a decade of culinary excellence, Pinx Catering continues to fulfill Pinky's vision of spreading warmth, joy, and culinary innovation in corporate catering. Let Pinx Catering elevate your next corporate event with a blend of flavors, design, and hospitality tailored to your business's unique needs.

OUR TEAM

Today, Pinx Catering and Events is a beacon of culinary excellence with a dedicated full-time staff orchestrating unforgettable events. Each department plays a vital role in creating bespoke experiences for every client.

The journey starts with the Sales Experience department, crafting personalized menus for a unique culinary adventure tailored to each client. This collaborative process culminates in a harmonious fusion of flavors, aesthetics, and ambiance.

The Design Department brings creativity and innovation to actualize the client's event vision, ensuring elegance and sophistication in every detail.

In the kitchen, under the accomplished Executive Chef's guidance, the Kitchen Staff transforms fresh ingredients into gastronomic delights for up to 3,000 guests a day.

The Logistics Team ensures flawless event execution, coordinating intricate details for a seamless experience. Admins and facility coordinators bridge communication across departments, guaranteeing smooth event operations.

This passionate and cohesive team embodies the spirit of Pinx
